OF THE

CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION OF BANGALORE

FOR

1885—86.

BY

Resident in Mysore.

PART I.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

There were no changes during the year under review in the form of Administration, but in order to facilitate the disposal of business separate officers were appointed to the posts of 2nd Magistrate, Treasury Officer, and Amildar.

2. The following Acts were extended to the Civil and Military Station :— .

(1) Act XXVI of 1881—The Negotiable Instruments Act.

(2) Act XX of 1882—The Indian Paper Currency Act.

3. There was no change in the strength of the Police, but the total cost of maintaining the force was Rs. 59,197, as against Rs. 63,623 in the year preceding.

4. The total number of cognizable cases reported for 1884 and 1885 is shown in the abstract given in para 7 to be 1,805 and 2,923 respectively, but this large variation is due to greater activity in detecting and prosecuting cases of committal of nuisances and similar breaches of sanitary regulations. Cases of these classes have increased during the past 3 years from 777 to 2,666.

5. Apart from these offences coming under the above unspecified class, which afford but a limited indication of the quality of Police work, and in which convictions follow almost as a matter of course, the crime returns show a healthy decrease from 278 in 1884 to 257 in 1885 chiefly noticeable amongst offences against person and property or property alone, and what is equally satisfactory an increase during the past year of percentage of convictions to cases prosecuted, the figures for both years being 96·53 and 98·37.

6. There was an increase of more than 2,000 over the amount (Rs. 5,342) of property stolen in 1884 with a slight decrease in the amount of recoveries which were about 45 per cent— the circumscribed area of Police jurisdiction naturally increases the difficulty of recovery.

7. It is believed that there are a number of habitual thieves in the Station, but the number (2) of cases of bad livelihood brought up before the Magistrates were inconsiderable.

8. The men of the Police Force are smart in appearance, and the results of their work have been on the whole satisfactory.

9. The receipts from Court Fees, fines and forfeitures were Rs. 5,127—0—7 showing an increase of Rs. 208-1-9 over the previous year. The cost of administering Criminal justice was almost the same in round numbers 16,000 in each year leaving approximately 11,000 in excess of receipts.

10. Three thousand four-hundred and seventy-four cases were tried by the Magistrates or nearly 1,000 more than in 1884, and 32 cases were pending at the close of the year. Omitting nuisance and other petty cases the numbers for 1884 and 1885 are 982 and 969, respectively, embracing all cases with which the Magistrates were called upon to deal whether on the motion of the Police or otherwise. 24 cases against European British Subjects were heard, but of these 8 were withdrawn, and 7 struck off in default of prosecution.

11. The percentage of convictions was 71·30, and the average duration of 1·02 in the District Magistrate's Court and 1 day in that of the 2nd Magistrate show that judicial business is attended to with very commendable despatch. It is satisfactory to note that there is very little serious crime in the Civil and Military Station. There was only one murder during the year, and the cases which come before the Courts are principally minor offences against property. Judging by the results of appeal to the Sessions Court magisterial work was decidedly good. Out of 18 appeals the sentences in 13 were confirmed, only one sentence was reversed, the orders in the other 4 cases being either altered or reduced.

12. The Sessions Judge had only to deal with 5 cases, in all of which the accused persons were convicted. All 5 cases came up on appeal to the Resident's Court, in 3 the appeals were rejected, whilst 2 were pending at the close of the year.

13. There was a remarkable increase in the number of Civil suits instituted during the year. For the past 4 years the numbers are :—

1883	..	..	1482
1884	..	..	1200
1885	..	..	1825

14. The yearly average excluding 1885 is 1,320 cases, so the figures for the past year show not only an increase of 50 per cent over the numbers of 1884, but also an excess of about 40 per cent over the average of the preceding 3 years.

15. The Civil Judge gives the impecuniosity of a number of the Towns-people as the cause of this increase, and it seems possible that over-trading and years of high prices may have led to more people than usual being unable to meet their engagements. For a single town however great variations in statistics may be simply accidental.

16. Including cases pending at the commencement of the year there were 1,972 for disposal, and of these 1,815 were settled—1,639 in the Small Cause Court and 176 as Regular Civil cases. That the Civil work is simple in character here is evident from the fact that only 266 out of the 1,639 Small Cause Court cases were contested. Regular Civil suits are from the nature of the disputes with which they deal more often contested, but out of the 176 suits of this class decided 60 gave rise to no enquiry or trial. The Civil Judge was therefore called upon to decide only 382 contested cases in all. The average duration in contested and uncontested cases was 31·5 and 17·36 days respectively. It is believed that Civil judicial work is performed with reasonable celerity. Unnecessary delay is of course undiserable, but on the other hand a low average duration is not always a safe indication of the quality of work.

17. One thousand two-hundred and sixty-four applications for execution of decrees were filed as against 929 in 1884. About 52 per cent of these were satisfied either wholly or in part, whilst in the remainder the decree-holder obtained no satisfaction. The total receipts for the year were 23,930—3—8 as against 23,298—11—8 in 1884—an increase of 631—8—0 There was also an increase of Rs. 419—3—2½ in the charges, which aggregated 25,103—7—1½ due to the amalgamation of the Judicial Commissioner's Court of Coorg with that of the Resident, on the 7th July 1885.

18. Including 5 appeals pending from the previous year there were 22 cases for disposal in the Resident's Civil Appellate Court: in ten of these cases the decrees were confirmed and reversed only in one. 14 appeals were decided leaving 8 pending at the close of the year.

19. Registration business is slowly but steadily increasing in the Civil and Military Station. 1,418 documents of all kinds were registered—an increase of 52 or 3·80 per cent on the transactions of the previous year. This result was mainly attained under the heading of " Optional Registration." There was a small increase under Compulsory Registration, but a considerable dimunition in respect to deeds relating to moveable property.

20. The value of property transferred by Registration was much less than in 1884, i. e. 7,36,836 in 1885 to 9,36,660 in 1884, and as a necessary consequence, the financial results were less favourable.

For the two years the account stands as follows;—

	1884—85	1885—86.
Receipts	4,838 4 0	4,213 10 0
Expenditure	1,514 12 9	1,633 13 9
Net Income ...	3,323 7 3	2,579 12 3

21. There has been no change in the Law regulating Municipal Administration, but proposals have been framed for the introduction of certain Sections of the Madras Municipal Act I of 1884, and a Draft Act for extension to the Civil and Military Station is under consideration. The actual income of the year excluding the opening balance and a loan of 8,000 obtained from Government for deepening the Ulsoor tank amounted to Rs. 1,64,577, which was better than the revenue of the previous year by 23,486. Including the opening balance and the sum borrowed the total receipts were 1,87,418. Of the actuals Octroi produced 43,026, the tax on houses buildings and land 33,358, Liquor license fees 26,824.

22. The Octroi is a diminishing source of income and will be abolished from the 1st April 1887. The tax on professions and trades shows a large and satisfactory increase from 3,015 to 12,759 attributable partly to more efficient registration and partly to the contribution made by Government on behalf of the Military Officers of the Bangalore Garrison. The increase from 609 to Rs. 2,168 in Fines is doubtless mostly due to the large number of prosecutions under nuisances which has been already alluded to. A contribution of Rs. 6,300 made by the Madras Government for Military Roads and the credit of arrears of Land Revenue account for the increase under Transfers and Contributions. With the above exceptions there are no marked variations in the various items of Receipts. Budget provision had been made for Rs. 10,790 as Revenue from the Local cess on Abkari and Land Revenue, which it was proposed to apply partly to the expenditure on Conservancy and partly as a grant for Primary Education, but the necessary sanction from the Government of India was not received until after the close of the year. Turning to expenditure the actuals show a total of Rs. 1,75,598, or an increase of Rs. 20,301 over the preceding year. The Municipality is not called upon to bear any charges on account of Police, but that the demands on its resources are sufficiently heavy is shown by the smallness of the closing balance which was only 11,820. Rs. 61,819 were spent on Public Works, 32,575 on Conservancy, and 24,193 on the maintenance of a Hospital and Vaccination charges. A noticeable feature in the year's management is the more economical working of the Conservancy Department—properly and zealously supervised this branch of the administration should in time become more nearly self-supppporting than it is at present.

23. On the whole the Municipal Administration is satisfactory: the attendance of non-official members at meetings of the Board was fairly regular though there is room for some improvement in this respect. The Commissioners have recently sustained a loss which will be much felt in the retirement of Major Maltby whose energy, intimate local knowledge, and sympathy with the people, rendered him a popular and successful President.

24. The Military operations in Burmah withdrew a portion of the Garrison from Bangalore. The 1st Madras Pioneers and the XII Madras Infantry were ordered on active service their places being taken by the X M. I. from Vellore.

25. There is nothing special calling for remark under the heading of Agriculture. The rain-fall exceeded the amount registered in any of the 3 preceding*years and was nearly 16 inches in excess of the fall in 1884—85. The statistics of trade are merely approximate, the imports and exports are said to have amounted in value to Rs. 40,72,025 and Rs. 7,89,675, but these figures cannot be relied upon. There is only one manufactory of any importance in the Station—The Bangalore Woollen Cotton and Silk Mills—it does a fair business.

1883...	...	35·
1884...	...	23·69
1885...	...	39·42

26. Revenue and Finance.—The receipts of the year in the Resident's Treasury amounted in all to Rs. 64,83,367 against 67,94,999 in the previous year, the disbursements for both years were Rs. 64,54,009, and Rs. 66,49,130 respectively. The surplus of Rs. 29,358 together with the opening balance of the year raised the closing balance to 7,71,013. Excluding the local revenues of the Civil and Military Station and monies brought to account by the Public Works, Post, Telegraph and Military Departments it will be seen that the direct revenue of other kinds was roughly 27¼ lakhs in this year as in the preceding one. This income is almost entirely derived from the subsidy paid by the Mysore State and the interest on the loan of 80 lakhs to that State. As the principal is paid off year by year the annual payments on account of interest will decrease. The total local revenues of the Civil and Military Station amounted to Rs. 3,37,588, and deducting Rs. 8,819, charges against income, the net receipts come to Rs. 3,28,769—an excess of Rs. 12,108 over those of 1884—85. The expenditure was 1,56,817 or 16,732 more than in the year preceding leaving a balance of Rs. 1,71,952.

27. There were 1,846 births and 1,152 deaths giving a proportion of 19·73 and 12·31 respectively per 1,000 of the population. During the past 3 years the death rate shows a satisfactory decrease.

1883—84	..	..	..	17·31 for mille.
1884—85	..	..	..	16·66 do
1885—86	..	..	..	12.31 do

The mortality amongst females was 11·38 higher than that amongst males, but there is no large distinction as to the number of deaths between the different classes or religions. There were 57 fatal cases of cholera but only 18 small pox. Fever claimed 258 victims, bowel-complaints 142, and unspecified cases the large number of 646.

28. During the past 3 years there has been a steady decrease in the attendance at the Bowring Hospital, the figures being in 1883—10,885, in 1884—8,223, in 1885—7,261.

This is accounted for by the establishment of the Dispensary at Ulsur, and a new Hospital near the Pettah in connection with the Convent of the Good Shepherd. It is also stated that the change in organization, whereby the Bowring Hospital is not now allowed to be used as a poor house for feeding those who are merely destitute but not sick, is responsible for some of the diminished attendance.

29. Steady progress was made in Vaccination by Municipal Vaccinators: the number of successful operations was 1,377 against 1,205 in 1884. Of aided schools 43 for boys and 29 for girls were at work during the year in the Civil and Military Station, with an aggregate number of 4,082 pupils, which shows an increase of 5 per cent over the numbers in 1884.

30. The aided Boys' schools remained the same in number. The aided Girls' schools increased from 25 to 29.

The increase in the number of girls receiving instruction from 1,297 to 1,506 is very satisfactory.

31. The total amount of grants-in-aid was 29,614, whilst private efforts contributed Rs. 59,159 ; thus the considerable sum of Rs. 32,060 was derived from fees, which shows that education is really valued in Bangalore. Rs. 8,682½ were granted in addition to various institutions for enlarging, purchasing or building premises or for purchase of furniture &c. Of the total Government grant Rs. 24,390 appear to go towards instruction in English and Rs. 5,224 towards instruction in the Vernaculars.

32. There has been a large falling off in the number of literary works produced, only 16 having been registered in 1885 to 58 in 1884. This is somewhat remarkable as there are now 17 printing presses in Bangalore. The only published work reported to possess much interest is a translation from the French into Tamil of the adventures of Telemachus.

33. The number of Newspapers is large for the size of the Station.

PART II.

I. PHYSICAL AND POLITICAL GEOGRAPHY.

FORM OF ADMINISTRATION.

1. The Civil and Military Station of Bangalore comprises an area of about 12½ square miles. The administration is conducted by the Resident in Mysore, who is also invested with the judicial powers formerly exercised by the Judicial Commissioner of Mysore. There are three subordinate Criminal Courts, the Court of the Sessions Judge, of the District Magistrate, and of 2nd Magistrate. The Sessions Judge is also the Civil Judge, and has the powers of a Court of Small Causes.

Mr. C. E. R. Girdlestone officiated as Resident from the 2nd June 1885 to the end of the year during the absence on furlough of Mr. J. B. Lyall.

II. ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND.

2. Under the arrangements made in 1884 for the collection of the land tax and other revenue in the Civil and Military Station, the District Magistrate exercises the powers of a Collector in the Station. There was a change during the year in the 2nd Magistracy. Mr. Pereira was retired, and Messrs. Abdul Rahman, Dias, and James were separately appointed to the offices of 2nd Magistrate, Treasury Officer, and Amildar, which had been jointly held by Mr. Pereira. An improvement in the working of the offices has been effected by this change.

3. The Station comprises fourteen Villages held on Kayemgutta, Jodi, and Sarvamanya tenures and bearing an assessment of Rs. 3,651—8—2. During the year, land assessed at Rs. 0—10—0 was taken up on cultivation, and land assessed at Rs. 3—8—0 was resigned. Owing to a permanent remission granted to the Kayemguttadar of Dodgunte village on account of land taken up in that village for the purposes of improving the water supply of the Station, the land revenue has been decreased by Rs. 156—12—0 a year.

III. PROTECTION.

COURSE OF LEGISLATION.

4. There was no change during the year except the introduction of the following enactments into the Civil and Military Station :—

(1). Act XXVI of 1881—The Negotiable Instruments Act.

(2). Act XX of 1882—The Indian Paper Currency Act.

POLICE.

I. Organization.

5. There was no change in the area of the jurisdiction of the Force, its strength remained the same, and the cost was Rs. 59,197 against Rs. 63,623 in the previous year. Out of the whole Force 67 officers and 187 men can read and write, and of 43 men newly enlisted 36 are returned as educated.

II. Discipline.

6. Notwithstanding that during the greater part of the year 1885 the Force was one European Inspector short of the sanctioned scale, the general working of the Police in no way lost ground, but on the whole was satisfactory.

7. The following is an abstract statement of operations:—

	No. of cognizable cases both true and false.		No. of cases struck off as false.		No. of cases pending under investigation or trial.		No. of cases fully investigated as true.		No. of cases prosecuted to conviction.		Percentage of conviction to true cases investigated.
	1884	1885	1884	1885	1884	1885	1884	1885	1884	1885	1884	1885
I. Offences against State, public tranquility, safety and justice	1	1	...	...	...	...	1	1	1	1	100	100
II. Serious offences against person	11	17	3	6	...	1	9	10	7	7	77·7	70
III. Do against person and property, or property only ...	34	20	1	4	19	9	14	12	14	11	100	91·6
IV. Minor offences against person	1	...	...	...	...	...	1	...	1	...	100	...
V Do against property	231	219	13	12	47	30	173	185	167	182	96·53	98·37
VI. Other offences not specified above	1527	2666	...	1	15	28	1515	2651	1481	2623	97·75	98·94

8. Under the first five heads, the total number of cases amounted to 257 against 278 of 1884, and 270 of 1883, showing an improvement towards prevention of crime. Of the 257 cases plus 13 pending at the close of last year with the Magistracy and brought under enquiry during the year, 22 cases were struck off the file as false, 40 cases remained at the close of the year as pending with the Police, and in 7 cases parties were either acquitted or discharged, and in 201 cases conviction was obtained.

9. Under head VI in the above statement, 2,666 cases were registered as classified below:—

(a). Vagrancy and bad character 2

(b). Railway laws 2

(c). Public and Local nuisances 2,591

(d). Other Special and Local laws cognizable by Police .. 71

10. The total number of cases under (c) Public and Local nuisances, during the last year was 1,475; the increase during the year is attributable to the continuance of the practice of detailing a few men in undress to guard the provisions of the Municipal Bye-laws and the Police Act.

11. The percentage of convictions to true cases investigated is 98·77 against 94·85 in the previous year. This result is satisfactory.

12. The total number of persons arrested during the year was 3,318. Of these 3 were released by Police, 4 were discharged by the Magistrates without trial, and of the remaining 3,311 persons plus 26 pending at the close of the previous year, 3,249 persons were prosecuted to conviction, 49 were either acquitted or discharged, and 39 were waiting trial at the close of the year. Two old and daring offenders were apprehended during the year and prosecuted to conviction. They had been for some years committing thefts not only in the Civil and Military Station and Town of Bangalore, but also on the Niligiri Hills.

13. The percentage of persons convicted to persons arrested is 97·18 against 95·64, and to persons put on trial is 98·51 against 95·64 of last year. This result as compared with the results of 1883 and 1884 is also satisfactory.

14. The amount of property stolen during the year was Rs. 7,553 against Rs. 5,342 in the previous year. This increase is attributable to 2 cases alone, in which the property stolen amounted to Rs. 3,269. The amount recovered was Rs. 3,465 showing a percentage of Rs. 45—14—0 against Rs. 46—12—5 of 1884 and Rs. 34 of 1883, which tends to show that the Police are improving in efficiency, but the statistics of offences against property point out that there are a number of habitual thieves in the Station.

15. Fewer cases of grave crime are shown in the returns. There was a case of murder during the year, the particulars of which are as follows :—

16. Information regarding a murder committed in Narrain Pillay Street was received through a resident of Vellore and communicated to the Bangalore Police by the Police at Vellore. Steps were immediately taken to ascertain details, which were to the effect that one Tiruvengadum Mudaliar had murdered his mother " Marithayammah and buried the body in his house in Narrain Pillay Street. The occurrence took place about the 15th of May. The accused and his wife remained in the house till early part of June, when the house being sold they left for Vellore in July. Leaving his wife there Tiruvengadum Mudaliar returned to Bangalore about the 23rd or 25th October. His wife, who was living with her father, acquainted him of the crimo committed by her husband.

17. Tiruvengadum Mudaliar was brought up before the District Magistrate on the 27th November, who committed the case to the Sessions Court on the 30th idem. The accused was tried and found guilty by the Sessions Judge, who on the 19th December sentenced him to death. On appeal to the Resident, the sentence of the Lower Court was confirmed, and Tiruvengadum Mudaliar was executed on the 9th February 1886.

18. There is nothing remarkable in the returns of punishments. 2 men were dismissed, and 4 officers and 9 men were departmentally punished during the year.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE.

19. The number of Criminal Courts in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore remained the same as in last year. The total revenue for the year derived from Court fees, fines, and forfeitures, amounted to Rs. 5,127—0—7 against Rs. 4,918—14—10 in 1884, giving an increase of Rs. 208—1—9. The cost of the Criminal Courts was Rs. 16,086—8—2 against Rs. 15,762—4—6 in the previous year, or Rs. 10,959—7—7 in excess of receipts.

20. The total number of offences reported was 3,509 as compared with 2,442 in 1884, and the number of offences returned as true was 3,435 against 2,420. The percentage of cases returned as true was 97·89 as against 99·09 in the previous year. This increase is attributed by the District Magistrate to the fact that the Police exhibited more attention to petty offences falling under the Police Act, the Municipal Regulations, &c. The statement of offences in the appendix will show that the number of offences under Special and Local laws amounted to 2,523 against 1,482 in 1884. If these cases, which are not strictly cases of crime are left out of account, the increase will then be only nominal. The offences under other heads do not show an appreciable increase or decrease as compared with the figures for the previous year.

21. The following statement is a classification of offences brought to trial in 1884 and 1885.

	Against the State and Public Justice.	Against the Person.	Against Property.	Other offences under the Penal Code.	Offences under Special and Local Laws.	Total.
1885	20	567	247	135	2,505	3,474

22. The total number of cases brought to trial, including 39 cases pending from the previous year, was 3,474. Of these 3,442 were disposed of during the year, 1,705 by the 2nd Magistrate, and 1,737 by the District Magistrate. Only 32 cases were pending at the close of the year. The total number of persons under trial was 5,127 as against 3,720, and they were dealt with as follows :—

	In the District Magistrate's Court.		In the 2nd Magistrate's Court.
	Number.	Percentage.	Number.	Percentage.
Died, escaped or transferred	59	2·76	...	...
Discharged or acquitted	358	16·79	1,005	34·11
Convicted { On regular trial	43	2·01	39	1·32

Committed or referred	4	0·18	1	0·03
Total.....	2,132	...	2,946	...

Thus there were only 49 persons left pending trial at the close of the year.

23. The percentage of convictions was 71·30, and of discharge or acquittal was 26·58. The proportion of convictions on summary trials to the total number convicted was 97·6 per cent.

24. The average duration of each case was 1·02 days in the District Magistrate's Court and 1 day in that of the 2nd Magistrate.

25. There was one case of murder committed during the year in which the accused was convicted.

26. In 5 cases against 1 in the previous year charged with the offence of giving false evidence, 6 persons were convicted as against 1. The increase is attributed by the District Magistrate to there being a new Civil Judge for the Station, who frequently prosecuted suitors and witnesses for perjury.

27. The number of cases of theft brought to trial was 176 against 226 persons. Conviction was obtained in 167 cases against 214 persons. Of the remaining 12 persons 5 were acquitted or discharged, and 7 remained under trial at the close of the year.

28. There were 6 cases involving 6 persons who were charged with the offence of receiving stolen property; all were convicted.

29. There were no offences committed under Chapters VI, VII, VIII, and IX of the Indian Penal Code.

30. It is satisfactory to note that there was a decrease in the number of cases in which proceedings of a miscellaneous nature under the Criminal Procedure Code were held during the year as is shown in the subjoined statement.

Nature of Proceedings.	1884.				1885.

31. Twenty-four cases affecting 34 European British born subjects were brought to trial before the District Magistrate as Justice of the Peace, against 14 cases concerning 14 persons in the previous year. Of these 8 cases affecting 10 persons were withdrawn, and 7 cases concerning 14 persons were struck off for default. Conviction was obtained in the remaining 9 cases against 10 persons concerned. It is observed that though the number of European British born subjects brought to trial increased during the year, yet the number actually tried and convicted was 1 less than in the year preceding.

32. Of the number of European British born subjects convicted during the year under report, 8 persons were fined in sums not exceeding Rs. 100, and 2 were sentenced to a term of 1 month's imprisonment.

33. During the year 1885, there were 4,463 witnesses examined in the Magistrates' Courts against 4,407 in the previous year. Of these 3,931 or 88 per cent were discharged on the 1st day, and 405 or 9 per cent on the 2nd day. The remaining 127 witnesses were not delayed more than 4 days.

34. The number of persons punished during the year was 3,656; of these 1 person was sentenced to death, 1 transported for life, 327 imprisoned; 60 persons were whipped, and 3,267 fined. Of the 327 imprisoned 147 were for 15 days and under, 136 for 6 months and under, 42 for 2 years and under, and 2 for 7 years and under.

35. The total amount of fines imposed was Rs. 4,654—3—0, of which Rs. 3,632—10—4 were realized during the year. A sum of Rs. 450 was paid by way of compensation.

Court of Sessions.

36. Five cases against 4 in 1884 were brought to trial before the Court of Sessions. All the 5 persons concerned were convicted. In 4 cases the Judge agreed with the finding of the assessors, and in 1 case differed from them. The number of witnesses examined was 43. The average duration of each case rose from 11·75 days in the previous year to 14·2 days.

37. Eighteen appeals affecting 21 persons were instituted in the Court of Sessions. In 1 case the sentence was reversed, in 4 cases reduced or altered, and in 13 the sentences were confirmed. The average duration of each appeal was 5·94 days.

Resident's Court.

38. Against the sentences passed by the Sessions Judge, 5 appeals were entertained in the Court of the Resident as High Court, of which 3 appeals were rejected and 2 were pending at the close of the year.

39. Three cases were sent up by the District Magistrate for revision, and one by the Sessions Judge. The sentence was confirmed in 1 case, and 3 remained undisposed at the end of the year. Five petitions of a miscellaneous nature were received from parties. In one case the order was reversed, in one altered, and the remaining three were rejected.

CIVIL JUSTICE.

40. Mr. J. D. Rees of the Madras Civil Service presided as Judge of the Civil Court in the Station for the first two months of the year, and Major Maltby, District Magistrate, for 3 months, during the absence of Col. W. Hill.

41. The total receipts for the year amounted to Rs. 23,930—3—8 as against Rs. 23,298—11—8 in 1884, giving an increase of Rs. 631—8—0; and the total charges amounted to Rs. 25,103—7—1½ against Rs. 24,684-3-11, or Rs. 419-3-2½ more than in the previous year. The increase in charges was due to the amalgamation of the establishment of the Coorg Judicial Commissioner's Court with that of the Resident's Court on the 7th of July 1885.

42. The number of suits instituted during the year was 1,825 against 1,200 in 1884 showing an increase of more than 50 per cent in litigation. Of these 179 were ordinary, and 1,646 were Small Cause Suits, or 90·19 per cent of the suits instituted were cognizable by a Court of Small Causes.

43. The total value of property under litigation was Rs. 3,85,730—0—0 against Rs. 2,46,626—7—7 in 1884. The average value of each suit was Rs. 211—5—8 against Rs. 205—8—4 in the previous year.

44. The subjoined statement classifies according to their subject matter the suits instituted during the year :—

Class of Suits.			1884.	1885.
Suits for money or moveable property...	Contract ...	In writing... ...	487	747
		Not in writing ...	26	65
	Goods sold		284	544

	Other Suits		220	259

	Suits for declaratory decree ...		7	3
	Suits to declare and establish rights to real property &c.		42	45
	Dissolution of partnership ...		1	8
	Other Suits		18	22
		Total.....	1,200	1,825

45. From the above figures it will be seen that there was an increase in the several classes of suits instituted except under "Immoveable Property" and "Declaratory Decree." The Civil Judge remarks that the increase in the number of suits is unprecedented since the establishment of his Court, and indicates chiefly the impecunious circumstances of many of the towns-people, which have forced creditors to seek redress in Court.

46. The suits instituted during the year are distributed according to their value in the table appended below :—

			1884.		1885.
			Number.	Percentage.	Number.	Percentage.

47. The cost of conducting litigation by parties in ordinary suits amounted on an average to Rs. 50—8—2¼, and in Small Cause Suits to Rs. 6—9—5 1/8.

48. There were 1,972 suits for disposal in the Civil Court, including 147 suits pending at the close of 1884. Of these 1,815 were disposed of as shown in the statement below, and 157 cases pending at the close of the year.

		176	...	1,639	...

49. From the above figures it will be observed that 45·51 per cent of small cause suits were decreed ex-parte. Twenty-two applications were made to set aside ex-parte decrees against 12 in the previous year. Of these 14 were granted, and 8 rejected.

50. The percentage of decrees passed in favour of Plaintiffs in contested cases was 59·65 in ordinary suits, and 12·75 in small cause suits. On the other hand the percentage of decrees passed in favor of defendants in contested cases was comparatively low, being 6·25 in ordinary suits, and 3·35 in small cause suits. Two suits only were referred for arbitration during the year, and they were decided in favor of plaintiffs.

51. The average duration of uncontested suits was 17·36 days against 19·92 in 1884; and that of contested cases was 31·5 days as compared with 30·63 in the previous year.

52. The following table exhibits the nature, number and disposal of applications for setting aside ex-parte decrees and for review of judgments &c. :—

53. The number of witnesses who attended the Court was 3,599 against 3,097 in the previous year; of these only 15 were detained for more than a day.

54. There were 234 miscellaneous cases for disposal during the year under report, which show an increase of 85 cases as compared with 1884. Two hundred and twenty-two cases were disposed of as shown below, and 12 cases were awaiting disposal at the close of the year under review.

55. Exclusive of cases under the Code of Civil Procedure there were 22 cases under Act XXVII of 1860, (an Act for facilitating the collection of debts on succession &c.) and 7 applications for probate and letters of administration. They were disposed of with the exception of 12 pending at the end of the year. The average duration of contested cases was 17·01 days, and for uncontested cases 9·66.

56. There were for disposal 1,264 applications for execution of decrees in the year as against 929 in 1884. They were disposed of as shown in the subjoined statement :—

	1884.		1885.

Wholly infructuous	461	52·20	565	47·00
Total	883	...	1,202	...

57. The increase in the number of applications for execution of decrees has followed the increase in the suits instituted. The percentage of wholly infructuous applications, though lower than that of 1884, continues to be high, being 47·00. There were 62 applications left undisposed at the end of the year. Rs. 53,814—9—1 were paid in after issue of process, and Rs. 26,907—4—7 were paid voluntarily into the Court.

58. Seventeen applications were filed for declaration of insolvency. Of these 6 were granted but without Receivers being appointed, and 4 were rejected without penal proceedings being taken. The number of Insolvents discharged under Section 355 was 6, and 7 applications were pending at the close of the year.

59. Processes issued during the year numbered 8,641, and process fees realized Rs. 5,223—0—0 as compared with 5,972 processes and Rs. 3,474—0—0 in 1884. The net profits, after deducting the cost of the Process serving establishment, amounted to Rs. 4,281—5—6, or Rs. 1,742—4—1 more than in the previous year.

60. Seventeen appeals were instituted in the Court of the Resident against the decrees of the Civil Judge, of which 7 were for moveable property, and 10 for immoveable property. The highest value of property involved in appeals instituted was Rs. 19,347—3—6. There were 22 appeals altogether for disposal including 5 pending from the previous year. The value of property involved in these appeals amounted to Rs. 36,510—10—10. They were disposed of as follows :—

61. Eight appeals were pending at the close of the year. The average duration of appeals was 42·78 days as against 56·43 days in 1884. The costs incurred by suitors in appeals amounted to Rs. 87—12—9 per suit.

62. Five miscellaneous appeals were filed during the year under report. Including 1 miscellaneous appeal that was pending from the previous year, there were 6 in all for disposal, and all of them were disposed of during the year. The average duration of time for their disposal was 69·83 against 29·25 in the previous year. The increase in time was due to the Resident being absent on tour and to the circumstance that his Court sits only once a week.

63. The other Civil miscellaneous work disposed of was as follows:—

Applications under Section 622	5
,, for review of Judgment	4

64. The fluctuations with regard to appeals, Regular and Miscellaneous, are ordinary, and not ascribable to any special cause.

REGISTRATION.

65. One thousand four hundred and eighteen documents of all kinds were registered in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore during the year 1885—86, against 1,366 in the previous year, thus showing an increase of 52 documents or 3·80 per cent. The following table exhibits the progress of the Registration Department during the past two years:—

Relating to Immoveable property.	1884—85.	1885—86.

66. Under the head of documents affecting immoveable property an increase is apparent both in the compulsory and optional classes, but the number of documents registered relating to moveable property, such as bonds &c, shows a large decrease.

67. The aggregate value of the immoveable property transferred by registered documents during the year was Rs. 6,89,869, against Rs. 8,56,251, and that of moveable property Rs. 46,967 against Rs. 80,409 in the previous year. The percentage of fees on the value of immoveable property was Annas 8—4, against Annas 7—5 in 1884—85, and on moveable property it was Annas 4—11 against Annas 4—1.

68. The financial results are given on the margin. The percentage of expenditure to income was 38·77 against 31·29 in the previous year. Increase in the percentage of expenditure was mostly due to the falling off in the receipts of the year.

MUNICIPAL ADMINISTRATION.

69. No organic change was made in the Municipal Administration in the year. The Regulations of 1883 remained in force.

70. A report was submitted by the Sub-Committee appointed at the close of 1884 to report what Sections of the Madras Municipal Act I of 1884 should be recommended for extension to the Civil and Military Station, and a draft Act was printed and circulated to the members of the Board for opinion. The draft Act as revised by the Board has been submitted lately.

71. The 3 vacancies, which occurred during the year among the Municipal Commissioners, one in European and Eurasian class and two in that of Hindus, were filled up by election under the sanction of the Resident. The attendance of the non-official Municipal Commissioners at the Board's meetings was fairly regular. It is only in the case of some of the Hindu members that the attendance can be said to have been bad.

72. The income of the year under report, including the cash balance of Rs. 14,841 brought forward from the preceding year and Rs. 8,000 borrowed from the Government with the sanction of the Government of India for carrying out works connected with the deepening of the bed of the Ulsur tank, amounted to Rs. 1,87,418. The actual income of the year exclusive of the cash balance and the loan was Rs. 1,64,577, and exceeded that of 1884 by Rs. 23,486. The following statement shows the actual receipts under the several heads during the years 1884—85 and 1885—86.

73. The decrease under the head "Octroi" was due, it is believed, to the smuggling of a large quantity of tobacco into the Station from the stores held by the wholesale merchants in the villages beyond the Municipal limits. The advisability of abolishing this tax and substituting instead other sources of income was under the consideration of the Municipal Commissioners at the close of the year.

74. The increase of Rs. 942 under head "Tax on Houses &c." was owing to the collection of the arrears of Mohatarfa tax on carts due for the previous year and to an increase in the number of villager's carts assessed during the year. The amount of house assessment collected exceeded the collection of the previous year by Rs. 478.

75. Under head "Tax on Professions and Trades" there was an increase of Rs. 9,744. This large increase was due to the better registration effected during the year and to a contribution of Rs. 2,716 made by the Government on account of the exemption from paying the tax of the Military Officers of the Garrison for the years 1884 and 1885.

76. The decrease under Liquor license fees is attributable to the refusal of the District Magistrate to relicense certain shops that became vacant during the year, there being too many shops in the Station.

77. The consumption of beer was greater while that of arrack was less, and consequently, when compared with the previous year, there was an increase of Rs. 1,095 in the duty levied on taverns in the Station for excess sale of beer over and above 7½ hogsheads per tavern per mensem, and a decrease of Rs. 1,238 in the duty on excess sales of arrack over and above 55 gallons per mensem per shop.

78. The increase under head "Rents of buildings and lands" was due to the good prices at which the stalls, grazing lands &c., were knocked down. The sale of of stalls at the Cantonment market fetched Rs. 477 more than in the previous year.

79. There was a marked increase of Rs. 1,559 under head Fines. This was due to the payment to the Municipality of the fines levied by Magistrates under Act V of 1861 (the Police Act), which were hitherto credited to the Government.

80. The increase of Rs. 3,044, shown under head "Miscellaneous," was chiefly due to the enhanced fees levied for licenses for carriages for hire in the Civil and Military Station under the Hackney Carriage Rules, which came into operation from the 1st April 1885. The head "Miscellaneous" includes contracts for slaughter houses &c., license fees of all kinds, and leases issued by the Municipality.

81. The maintenance of the Military Roads within the limits of the Station was undertaken this year by the Municipality, and for this purpose a contribution of Rs. 6,300 was made by the Madras Government. The Land Revenue collection of the Station for the years 1883—84 and 1884—85 aggregating Rs. 6,334 was paid in during the year. The above two receipts account for the increase shown under head "Transfers and Contributions."

82. The sanction of the Government of India to the transfer of a part or the whole of the local cess on Abkari and Land Revenue to the Municipality to be applied partly for general conservancy purposes, partly for the maintenance of primary schools in the Civil and Military Station, was not communicated before the end of the year; consequently the sum of Rs. 10,790, budgetted as the anticipated revenue from this source, was not received by the Municipality, and the grant of Rs. 4,854 to primary schools was not made.

83. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 1,75,598 showing a balance of Rs. 11,820 at the close of the year. The expenditure was greater than that of the preceding year by Rs. 20,301 as will be seen from the appended statement.

84. The largest item of increase in the above statement is "III Public Works." Under "(b) Original Works" the increase amounted to Rs. 14,285, and under "(c) Repairs" it was Rs. 6,075. The beds of the Shoolay and the Ulsoor tanks were deepened during the year, and some improvements were made in the conservancy arrangements of the latter tank, which is the principal source of water supply to a large number of the residents, and to the British troops garrisoned in the Civil and Military Station. The neighbouring Jeevanhally tank was also purchased to admit of the water collected there being diverted to the Ulsoor tank. The cost incurred in carrying out the above works was Rs. 24,447, including the sum of Rs. 8,000 borrowed from the Government with the sanction of the Government of India. This loan was repaid, as agreed, on the 1st January 1886. The increase shown under "Repairs" was attributable to the maintenance of military roads, which, as already noticed, was this year undertaken by the Municipality for a lump sum payable by the Madras Government.

85. The total cost of the maintenance of the Bowring Civil Hospital amounted to Rs. 20,571; this includes the sum of Rs. 1,640 held in deposit on the recommendation of the Residency Surgeon and with the approval of the Municipal Commissioners for the construction of a new dispensary building for out-patients in the Hospital compound.

The building temporarily rented for the Ulsoor Dispensary was considered unsuitable for the purpose, and a new building was erected in a central position at a cost of Rs. 2,755. This charge was met from the moiety of the land revenue collection placed at the disposal of the Municipality for charitable purposes. The up-keep of this dispensary during the year cost Rs. 1,420.

The services of the Medical subordinates belonging to the Mysore Government were, on the requisition of the Durbar, replaced at its disposal during the year, and their places were supplied by the Hospital Assistants obtained from the Madras Government.

86. The decrease under "Conservancy" was due to the abolition of the system of conserving native houses by a staff of carts and sweepers maintained at the expense of the Municipality. The conservancy work of these houses was this year undertaken by ryots who employ their own carts and labour, receiving in exchange night soil &c. for manuring their fields. This system in which 48 carts in all were engaged was found to work well, and was profitable to the Municipality as in addition to saving of establishment an income was secured from the carts which pay Rs. 24 per annum per cart to the Municipality for the privilege.

87. The total number of lamps lit in the Station on the 31st March 1886 was 586, and the cost including the purchase of lamp posts &c. amounted to Rs. 9,058, or Rs. 1,693 in excess of that of the previous year.

88. The octroi is levied on tobacco, betel-leaves, and green and dry cocoanuts. The appended statement shows the quantity of the above articles imported into the Civil and Military Station and Town of Bangalore, together with the amount of duty levied during the year under report.

89. The income from Municipal taxes which include octroi (Rs. 43,026), tax on houses, buildings and lands (Rs. 33,358) and tax on professions and trades (Rs. 12,759) amounted during the year to Rs. 89,143 against Rs. 79,919 in the preceding year. The incidence per head of population was Rs. 0—15—3 against Rs. 0—13—7 in 1884.

90. Out of 80 cases of small-pox reported during the year, 18 proved fatal against 220 deaths out of 824 cases in the previous year. 1,659 persons were vaccinated with successful result in 1,446 cases.

91. The number of deaths from all causes registered during the year was 1,152, or 406 less than in the previous year, the ratio per mille of population being 12·30 against 16·66 in 1884.

MILITARY.

92. The strength of the Bangalore Garrison, both European and Native, amounted at the end of the year to 3,553 Combatant Officers and men against 4,222 in the previous year. This decrease is due to the departure of the 1st Madras Pioneers and the XII Regiment Madras Infantry on active service in Burmah, their place being supplied by the X. M. I. from Vellore.

93. A Regiment of European Infantry was wanting to complete the Garrison of Bangalore, which cost during the year Rs. 14,07,883.

The troops quartered in Bangalore at the close of the year under report were—

European—
	Royal Artillery	3 Batteries.
	Cavalry	XII Royal Lancers.
	Royal Engineers	K Company, Royal Engineers.
Native—
	Cavalry	1st Madras Lancers.
	Engineers	Madras Sappers and Miners.

IV. PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

AGRICULTURE.

94. Within the limits of the Civil and Military Station there is a small quantity of arable land, a great part of which is occupied by market gardens and cultivated enclosures round dwelling houses. From the returns of agriculture appended to the statistical tables, it will be seen that out of a cultivated area of 736 acres, 340 acres or a little less than half was sown with Ragi. Rice cultivation covered 86 acres. The Land Revenue amounted to Rs. 3,654, or Rs. 28 less than in the previous year.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

95. The rain-fall gauged at the Government Meteorological Observatory was 39 inches and 24 cents against 23·69 in the previous year. The fall was heaviest in the month of October, the quantity gauged being 14·46.

The following table shows the mean temperature, humidity and rain-fall of each month for the period under report.

TRADE.

97. Statement III. (I) in the appendix gives particulars of the quantity and approximate value of articles imported and exported during the year. There is no material change from the figures given for the previous year. Gold and hides of the value of Rs. 2,00,000 and 20,000, respectively, were exported against Rs. 96,000 and 10,000 in 1884—85.

MANUFACTURES.

98. The Bangalore Woollen Cotton and Silk Mills is the only manufactory of any importance in the Civil and Military Station. This concern is worked by a company with a capital of two lakhs of rupees, and affords employment to 55 persons daily. The mills possess 6 rooms and 260 spindles. During the past year 40,940 lbs. of blankets and jhooling valued at Rs. 21,180 were turned out at the mills.

V. REVENUE AND FINANCE.

IMPERIAL.

99. The receipts of the year under all heads in the Resident's Treasury amounted to Rs. 64,83,367 against Rs. 67,94,999 in the previous year. The disbursements amounted to Rs. 64,54,009 against Rs. 66,49,130 in 1884—85. There was thus a small surplus of Rs. 29,358, which added to the opening balance of Rs. 7,41,655 on the 1st April 1885, raised the closing balance of the 31st March 1886 to Rs. 7,71,013.

100. The total direct revenues of the year, excluding those of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and those brought to account by the Public Works, Postal, Telegraph, and Military Departments, amounted as shown below to Rs. 27,76,916 against Rs. 27,75,131 in the previous year.

Subsidy from the Mysore State	24,50,000	24,50,000

Cemetery receipts	580	470
Other miscellaneous receipts	1,702	632
Total Rs. ..	27,76,916	27,75,131

101. The total receipts of the two years do not show any large variation. The interest on the loan to the Mysore State decreases yearly in proportion to the reduction in the principal. The large sum of Rs. 4,959, under the head cash recoveries of service payments in previous years, represents recoveries of absentee allowances paid by the Secretary of State in England to certain officers of the Mysore Government, and of advances made in England to those of the British Government while on furlough there. The recoveries in 1885—86 are abnormally high. The credits in 1884—85, and in the first three months of 1885—86 in connection with the Bengal Civil Fund, were taken to the head of account current with India, and did not appear as revenue in the local books. The large decrease under "stamps" is due to the discontinuance of the supply of water marked paper and adhesive stamps from the Madras Depot to the Mysore State, the amount credited on this account being Rs. 1,111 in 1884—85 and Rs. 3,664 in 1883—84. The amount entered against the last item in 1885—86, viz., other miscellaneous receipts, includes a sum of Rs. 766 on account of exchange on certain payments, chiefly pensions, made in England on behalf of the Mysore Government, and Rs. 62 on account of interest on the loan of Rs. 8,000 granted by the Government of India to the Bangalore Municipality and repaid by it during the year.

102. The total expenditure under service heads, omitting that of the Civil and Military Station and that brought to account by the Public Works, Postal, Telegraph, and Military Departments, is compared below with the transactions of the previous year.

	1885—86.	1884—85.
Salaries and allowances of the Resident, Assistant Resident, and Treasury Officer	85,904	70,638

Petty construction and repairs ..	5,579	1,182
Sundry other charges	4,957	6,487
Total Rs. .. .	2,68,433	3,33,684

103. If the amount of refund, viz., Rs. 88,005 in 1884—85 and 241 in 1885—86 on account of the leave and pensionary contributions of British officers lent to the Mysore State consequent on the decision of the Secretary of State to abandon all claims against that State in respect to the services of such officers up to 30th September 1882, be excluded, the expenditure in 1885—86 exceeds that of 1884—85 by Rs. 22,513, the excess being due mainly to the following causes.

(1) To the inclusion in the accounts of 1885—86 of the privilege leave allowances of Mr. J. B. Lyall, Resident of Mysore.

(2) To increased expenditure under travelling allowances and contingencies as also under petty construction and repairs; and

(3) To the payment of a larger amount of pensions inclusive of a sum of Rs. 3,063 refunded to the Mysore State on account of the leave and pensionary allowances of certain officers erroneously recovered and credited in 1882—83.

The excess expenditure as shown above has to some extent, however, been counterbalanced by savings in ecclesiastical charges.

104. The following table gives particulars of the receipts and charges at the Resident's Treasury other than those given in paras 102 and 103.

105. During the year under review in order to reduce as far as possible remittances in aid of the Treasury, Supply Bills to the extent of Rs. 2,15,430 were, under instructions from the Accountant General, issued by the Resident's Treasury upon other Treasuries in this Presidency, against Rs. 1,56,996 similarly drawn in the previous year. The diminution of about 2½ lakhs in the cash remittances to the Resident's Treasury during 1885—86, as compared with 1884—85, is due entirely to the smaller military disbursements in 1885—86.

*Paid in April 1886.

LOCAL.

106. The gross revenue of the Civil and Military Station for the year under report was Rs. 3,37,588 against Rs. 3,22,540 in 1884—85. After deducting Rs. 8,819 the total charges against income, the net receipts amounted to Rs. 3,28,769, or Rs. 12,108 more than the net receipts of the previous year.

107. Expenditure under all heads amounted to Rs. 1,56,817 against Rs. 1,40,085 and the balance to Rs. 1,71,952, or Rs. 4,624 less than in 1884—85.

108. Particulars are given in the appended statement of net receipts and expenditure during the years 1884—85 and 1885—86.

Under receipts, the only item which needs mention is excise on spirits and drugs. Under this head the income during the year was Rs. 13,169 more than that of 1884—85. Expenditure under "Law and Justice" was Rs. 7,728 more than in the previous year, which is attributable chiefly to Rs. 4,566 expended on account of "Jail rations" against Rs. 284 in 1884—85, and to the acting allowances drawn by officers. The increased expenditure of Rs. 9,175 under education included the grants sanctioned by the Resident to certain schools in the Civil and Military Station for furniture and buildings.

VI VITAL STATISTICS AND MEDICAL SERVICE.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

109. There were 1,846 births or 19·73 per mille of population registered in the Station during the year against 2,089 in 1884—85. The proportion of male children to female was 111·21 to 100. Births exceeded deaths by 7·42 per 1,000 against 5·68 during the previous year.

110. The number of deaths registered was 1,152, or 12·31 per 1,000 against 1,558 in the preceding year showing a marked decrease.

111. The mortality amongst females exceeded that of males by 62 or 11·38 per cent, which excess may in a measure be attributed to the fact that females not attending hospitals do not receive the same medical treatment as males. The highest mortality (141) was in the month of June and the lowest (74) in October, while in the previous year the highest was in April and the lowest in February.

In respect of age the rate of mortality was highest under one year being 135 among males and 145 among females, and lowest between 6 and 12 years, the figures being 30 males and 32 females.

Taking the mortality according to classes the highest rate was among Hindus, who had a death rate of 12·87 per 1,000 of population. Next came "Other classes," which include Europeans and East Indians with a death rate of 12·24 per mille. Among Muhammedans the death rate was 10·89.

112. The subjoined table compares the different causes of death as shown by the returns for the year under report and the preceding year.

Diseases.	1884—85.		1885—86.
Cholera	10	·10	57	·61
Small-pox	220	2·35	18	·19

Bowel-complaints	153	1·63	142	1·52
Injuries	23	·24	31	·33
All other causes	795	8·53	646	6·91

It will be seen from the above that the mortality was highest under fevers as usual, while up to the close of the year only 18 deaths from small-pox against 220 in 1884—85, or a ratio of ·19 per 1,000 of population, took place. Cholera contributed 57 deaths as compared with 10 in the previous year. The disease first made its appearance on the 25th May and subsided at the close of the following month. A temporary camp hospital was at once established and a medical subordinate appointed for the special work, but owing to the camp hospital being situated at a great distance from the town, persons attacked by cholera did not seek admission thereto and the camp was accordingly closed, the services of the Hospital Assistant in charge were utilized, however, on the recommendation of the Residency Surgeon, in making an house to house inspection and treating cases as they occurred in their homes. In this way many sanitary defects were noticed, and improvements effected by the Municipality.

MEDICAL RELIEF.

113. The Bowring Civil Hospital and the Ulsoor Dispensary continued to afford medical aid to the public gratuitously throughout the year under review.

114. The following table exhibits the total number of persons treated at the Bowring Hospital during the past 5 years, and the number of deaths and percentage of deaths of the most common diseases.

115. The number of admissions from Fever is 278 less than last year. Diarrhœa, dysentery, ulcers, debility, and respiratory affections also show a corresponding diminution in the number of admissions, there being 23, 26, 219, 68 and 348, less respectively, than in the previous year. The subjects of diarrhœa, dysentery, and debility, were as a rule brought to the hospital by the Police in a dying state, and consequently the largest percentage of deaths took place under those heads. 13 cases of cholera of a virulent type, which resisted all treatment, were admitted during the year, and 12 proved fatal: there were 10 cases of small-pox treated, and all recovered.

116. There were 1,136 in-door and 17,324 out-door patients treated during the year against 1,442 and 20,355 in the previous year, respectively.

The decrease of 306 in the number of in-patients and 3,031 in the number of out-patients may be considered as partly due to the past year having been healthy, and in the case of the former, to the system of re-organization which was introduced in 1884 being in force, whereby the destitute and half starved, but not sick (who formerly made the institution a place of refuge) were excluded from its wards, while the decrease of 3,031 above referred to may further be accounted for, as in the previous year, not only by the continuance of the dispensary at Ulsoor which was in full working order and where an attendance of 5,734 sick was treated throughout the year, but also to the establishment in the vicinity of the Pettah of another new hospital and dispensary under the auspices of the Lady Superioress of the Convent of the Good Shepherd.

117. Forty six major and 37 minor operations were performed against 49 and 98, respectively, during the previous year in the in-patient department, and 663 minor operations were performed in the out-patient department.

The appended statistical tables show the results of the operations, which are most satisfactory.

118. The total number of patients treated at the Ulsoor Dispensary was 5,734 against 5,897 in the previous year. Of those treated there were 2,103 men, 1,488 women, and 2,148 children, against 2,285 men, 1,504 women, and 2,108 children, respectively, in 1884—85. The average daily attendance was 52·35 against 64·74.

119. Respiratory affections, ague, skin and eye diseases, injuries, diarrhœa abscess, boils, and rheumatic affections were the most common diseases.

120. At the close of the year the temporarily rented building, used as a dispensary, was vacated and a new building, which had been erected by the Municipality was occupied. The medical subordinate in charge was at the same time replaced by an Hospital Assistant from Madras, the services of the former being required by the Mysore Government.

SANITATION.

121. The general health of the Station was good throughout the year. The Municipal Commissioners attended to the sanitation of the town as usual, which was on the whole satisfactory. A length of 3,596 running feet of the Shoolay main sewer was reconstructed and the side walls of the general Bazaar main sewer were raised to a length of 820 feet. One well in the Dhoby ghat, Ulsoor, was partly constructed and the Shoolay and Ulsoor tanks were improved and deepened. An addition of a few latrines was made in some of the crowded localities.

VACCINATION.

122. The vaccination work was entirely done by the two male Municipal Vaccinators. Calf lymph was obtained from Madras, and operations with it were fairly successful.

123. The total number vaccinated during the year under report was 1,659 against 1,597 in 1884—85. The successful cases from primary vaccination were 1,377 against 1,205, or 86·89 per cent of total vaccinated, or 15·46 per 1,000 of population.

124. The average number vaccinated by each vaccinator was 829·5. 73 cases were re-vaccinated, of which 69 proved successful giving a percentage of 94·52.

Out of the total number of cases successful under primary vaccination, 957 were under 1 year, 391 under 6, and 29 above 6 years.

According to sex there were 798 males and 861 females, who were vaccinated during the year.

125. The total cost of the establishment, which was borne by the Municipality, was Rs. 247—10—0, or Rs. 3—12—0 less than last year. Of this amount a reward of Rs. 7—10—0 was paid to the parents of children vaccinated. The average cost of each successful case was 2 annas 9 pies against 6 annas 1 pie in the previous year.

VII. INSTRUCTION.

EDUCATION.

126. The total number of pupils under instruction has risen from 3,877 to 4,082 an increase of over 5 per cent. They are distributed among 43 schools for boys with 2,576 pupils, and 29 for girls with 1,506. According to race or creed 1,307 are Europeans or Eurasians, 787 Native Christians, 1,523 Hindus, 464 Muhammedans, and 1 other. All the schools are aided institutions.

127. The details for the past and present years may be tabulated and compared as follows :—

Grade of Instruction.	Class of Instruction.	For boys.				For girls.
		1884—85.		1885—86.		1884—85.		1885—86.

	Total.....	43	2,580	43	2,576	25	1,297	29	1,506

128. The increase is principally due to the newly aided Girls' schools, namely, the Wesleyan Tamil Girls' schools in Narayan Pillai Street, and in Pillaiyar Street, Shoolay. The former has received a monthly grant of Rs. 50 besides a building grant of Rs. 850 on account of new premises recently erected; the latter has a monthly grant of Rs. 20. In addition to these, an annual grant of Rs. 250 was sanctioned for the Lutheran Orphanage for destitute native boys and girls.

129. The final adoption for European schools of the Revised Code for Bengal was resolved upon, but certain modifications of the standards are under consideration to adapt them to the requirements of the Madras public examinations, for the holding of which Bangalore is a centre, namely, the Middle School Examination, the Higher Examination for Women, and the Special Upper Primary Examination. The rates of grants are also being revised with reference to the amounts now paid to the schools, which have not been found inadequate. In the case of St. Joseph's College a special difficulty has arisen in applying the Code, owing to the large proportion of native pupils. The limit allowed is 25 per cent, but the authorities of the college are not prepared to refuse admission to as many natives as like to come, or abide by any limitation.

130. Financial Statistics.—The total amount expended by Government in grants for instruction was Rs. 29,614, against a total private expenditure of Rs. 59,159, of which there was derived from school fees a sum of Rs. 32,060. The latter shows an increase of Rs. 2,081 over last year.

131. Grants for buildings, furniture and apparatus, under the provisions of the Revised Code, were also given to the extent of Rs. 8,682½ to the following institutions :—

St. Joseph's College (balance of total of Rs. 18,000 for enlargement of the premises)	4,559	8	0
Baldwin Schools (for purchase of premises)	2,000	0	0
Wesleyan Tamil Girls' School, Narayan Pillai Street (for erection of new premises)	850	0	0
St. Andrew's Schools (for furniture and apparatus) ..	794	4	0

132. The transfer of the Local Fund cess to the Municipality from the 1st of April 1885 having been ordered by the Government of India, the grants to purely Primary schools are now defrayed from that source, though the change was not actually brought into operation till after the close of the official year.

133. The Government and private expenditure for instruction may be distributed as follows :—

134. It appears that of the Government grants a sum of Rs. 24,390 goes towards English instruction and Rs. 5,224 to the vernaculars. The subjoined statement shows the amounts received and expended by the various religious denominations :—

135. All classes being taken together, the education of each pupil costs Rs. 21—12—0 for the year, of which Rs. 7—4—0 was defrayed from public and Rs. 14—8—0 from private funds. Or, in other words, each pupil on the whole paid Rs. 7—13—8 in fees, receiving aid from Government of Rs. 7—4—0 and from private contributions of Rs. 6—10—4.

136. Colleges.—The results obtained in the two Colleges were very poor, judging from the Pass list of the First Arts Examination. From St. Joseph's 10 candidates appeared, and from Bishop Cotton's 1 ; of whom only one of the former was successful in the second class. From the issue of this and other public examinations mentioned below, St. Joseph's would appear to have sent up a large number of pupils not sufficiently prepared, and in both institutions the college department needs strengthening if it is to be efficiently maintained.

137. Secondary Schools.—The highest standard for secondary schools is the matriculation examination, and the results in this were also less favourable than last year. Out of 54 candidates who appeared (46 boys and 8 girls), 17 passed (12 boys and 5 girls) all in the second class. St. Joseph's sent up no less than 29, of whom only 6 were successful. Bishop Cotton's and St. Andrew's each passed 2 out of 6 boys, and the former 2 out of 3 girls : the Convent 2 out of 4 girls. The Baldwin Schools sent up 2 boys and 1 girl, passing one of the former. St. Mark's sent 3 boys and passed 1. St. Andrew's Schools have been reorganized and provided with a good set of scientific apparatus. The Baldwin Schools lost two Head Masters in a very short time. The Revd. Ira Richards had to leave for America broken down in health, and his successor, the Revd. Mr. Eddy died suddenly after being here only a few weeks. The Revd. Mr. Bowser is now in charge, and extensions of the premises are being arranged for to accommodate the growing numbers. St. Mark's has exchanged its Head Master Mr. Cox, who has left the station, for Mr. Thomson, for many years in charge of St. Andrew's.

138. At the higher examination for women there were 23 candidates, and 14 passed, all but one in the first class, which indicates more careful preparation than for the examinations above referred to. Bishop Cotton's passed 4 out of 8, St. Andrew's 2 out of 3, the Convent 2 out of 4, the Wesleyan School 1 out of 3. The others were private students. In all the public examinations there seem to have been fewer failures among the girls than among the boys.

139. The Middle School Examination attracted 148 candidates (98 boys and 50 girls). Of these 37 were successful (27 boys and 10 girls). But none gained a first class, and only 4 boys and 1 girl won a second class. The following were the number of passes from the various schools :—Boy's—St. Joseph's 10 (out of 30), Baldwin 4 (out of 9), Bishop Cotton's 2 (out of 17), St. Andrew's 2 (out of 8). St. Patrick's and Chatur Veda, 2 each, St. John's, St. Mark's, Broadway, St. Mary's, St. Paul's—1 each : Girls'—Bishop Cotton's 3, Wesleyan 2, Baldwin, Convent, St. Andrew's, St. John's, St. Francis Xavier's—1 each.

140. Primary Schools.—These form the largest class of schools as all the higher institutions have a Primary department, and there are besides many schools purely Primary, being confined to that standard altogether. The European schools send up candidates for the Special Upper Primary Examination, and this year 12 passed, 10 being in the first class. The boys were 4, namely, 2 from Bishop Cotton's, and 1 each from St. Joseph's and Baldwin. The girls were 8, namely, 3 from the Wesleyan School, 2 each from St Andrew's and Baldwin, and 1 from Bishop Cotton's. In the inspection examinations 240 passed the Upper Primary Standard out of 489 children presented, and 295 the Lower Primary out of 667.

141. Unaided Schools.—These are reported to be 55 in number, the same as last year, but with 2,128 pupils or 264 more than then. The figures include 5 Girls' schools, with an attendance of 154. English is taught in 1 boys' school of 5, and in 3 girls' schools of 68. With a vernacular it is taught in 3 other boys' schools having 380 pupils. Of the remaining schools 29 are Hindu, teaching Kannada, Telugu, Tamil, or Sanskrit, attended by 1,061 children, of whom 80 are girls, and 19 Muhammadan, teaching Hindustani, Persian or Arabic, attended by 614. Inquiries are being made with the view of applying, if possible, some of the recommendations of the Education Commission to the more permanent of these schools; and with regard to all classes of schools, aided or unaided, the introduction of a system of grants by results alone has been kept in view.

LITERATURE AND THE PRESS

142. The number of works registered in 1885 was only 16 against 58 in 1884 and 35 the year before. The removal of troops for the North West frontier and for Burmah was probably the cause of this decline in the demand for local publications. Of those which appeared, 4 were in English, 8 in Hindustani, 2 in Tamil, and 1 in English and Tamil, and 1 in Telugu and English.

143. The greater number of the books fall under the head of Religion, which claims 6, all in Hindustani. Under Language there were 3; History and Miscellaneous 2 each, Drama, Fiction, and Law, 1 each. The only work that seems of special interest is a translation in Tamil of the adventures of Telemachus, published with the English, which is itself a translation from the French. It does not appear that this work has been done into an Indian vernacular before.

144 The number of printing presses has increased by one, and stands at 17. The new press is the Imperial, in European hands. The others are as reported before.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS.

ECCLESIASTICAL.

145. The Roman Catholic Mission.—There are four parochial churches in the Station, besides two large chapels in the Convent of the Good Shepherd, two others attached to educational institutions, and ten smaller ones for the use of native catholics in their respective parishes.

146. In connection with the cathedral in Shoolay, a library and a recreation room are maintained for the use of soldiers and of the members of the Temperance Society.

147. Fifteen European missionaries and 2 native priests are employed by the Mission in educational and parochial work under a Bishop, Vicar Apostolic of Mysore and Coorg, who has his head-quarters at Bangalore.

148. In the ecclesiastical seminary 29 students are boarded. Two of them received the clerical tonsure in 1886.

149. St. Joseph's College, already affiliated to the Madras University, has been almost entirely rebuilt on a larger and most imposing plan. This institution affords to European and Native families of all religious persuasions the means of procuring for their children a full course of liberal education. Boarders are received and are constantly under the immediate supervision of their superiors. Its staff consists of 6 priests and 11 lay teachers and moonshees. 380 scholars are on its rolls, and 16 students in the F. A. class.

150. In St. John's Hill attached to the parochial church of St. Francis Xavier is an aided school for European girls, where 75 girls under the instruction of 3 mistresses are educated. There are also two Tamil schools, one for boys and one for girls, the pupils in which number 75 and 36 respectively. These two schools are supported by the Parish Priest without any Government aid.

151. In Blackpully St. Mary's Anglo Vernacular School has on its rolls 160 boys, and 70 girls are attending the Tamil school. These two institutions, under 13 teachers for the boys and two mistresses for the girls, are very much appreciated by the natives on account of the successful teaching of the Christian brothers. There is also an orphanage for native boys numbering 25.

152. At St. Patrick's Cathedral the Middle School is kept up chiefly for the education of the orphan boys. On an average there are 65 European and Eurasian orphan boys in this charitable institution. The school staff consists of 5 teachers, and is attended by 115 European and Eurasian lads and a few native boys.

153. The native Parish of the Sacred Heart in Shoolay maintains 3 boys' and one girls' schools, the pupils numbering 115 and 40 respectively, without any aid from Government.

154. Five orphanages are supported by the Catholic Mission in the Civil and Military Station, three for Europeans and Eurasians, and two for Natives. There are about 250 orphans cared for in these institutions.

155. In connection with the Catholic Mission in the Station, there is at Shoolay near the Cathedral a large institution, the Convent of the Good Shepherd conducted by a Lady Superior assisted by 27 European Nuns. It contains nine distinct classes or departments which are briefly particularized below :—

A boarding and day school for girls.—This school has an average attendance of 110 children who are taught up to the Matriculation standard by 7 European Nuns. Foreign languages, music and drawing, are also taught.

An Orphanage for Eurasian children.—The inmates including the children of deceased soldiers vary in number from 70 to 80. The children remain in the orphanage till provided for.

An orphanage for native children, of all castes, and for Eurasian children of the lowest classes, in which 95 are cared for During the year under review 19 of the famine orphan girls were married.

A Reformatory for native women and girls.—There are about 75 or 80 inmates in this class.

A "Home" for destitute European and Eurasian women.—The inmates vary in number from 40 to 55, and are occupied in needle work.

A Magdalen class.—This class forms a separate religious community. There are 16 religieuse occupied in plain and fancy needle work.

An Infant Asylum.—There are 22 foundlings varying in age from 1 month to 6 years under the care of special nurses.

A free school frequented by children of the poorest classes of the Eurasian community. Each child is provided with one meal daily and two suits of clothes annually. The attendance is very irregular the children being sometimes 30 or 40.

The native sisters of St. Ann.—This religious community numbers 28 native nuns and novices, all employed inside and outside the Convent as teachers in the vernaculars and in knitting and fancy work, which is disposed of for the benefit of the Convent.

156. Besides a monthly grant-in-aid to the European school and a small allowance from the Mysore Government for the famine orphan girls, the Convent receives nothing from the Government for the support of its charitable institutions.

157. The sisters of charity of the congregation of St. Joseph of Tarbes (France) at the Bowring Hospital have continued their good work of incessant nursing to the satisfaction of their superiors, and they enjoy the respect and affection of all their patients. Three of them receive from the Municipality a monthly allowance of Rs. 40 each and free lodgings since the death last year of one from cholera in nursing a patient. Seven other nuns of the same religious congregation arrived this year. Four of them have already been attached to the Mysore Civil Hospital.

158. The Catholic Press on St. John's Hill executes all the printing of the Mission and undertakes work for the public, both in English and Canarese.

159. During the past year 635 new converts are reported to have been received into the Roman Catholic Church in the whole Vicariate, out of them 436 in the Station itself.

160. The Roman Catholic population in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore is reported to be composed as follows:—Europeans and Eurasians—2,143, Natives 9,976, total 12,119.

161. LONDON MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—In connection with the London Missionary Society there are four European Missionaries, 4 Native Ministers, 8 Evangelists, and 55 School teachers, of whom 5 are females. The operations of the society are chiefly in the Bangalore Pettah, and in the Districts to the East of Bangalore, where it has 9 outstations. The number of Native Christians connected with the Mission is 444. Under its care are two orphanages containing 8 boys and 20 girls, also 18 schools with 1,494 scholars, of whom 534 are girls. One of the schools is a High School, from which 28 passed the Matriculation standard of the Madras University at its last examination. The education in the other schools is to the middle and primary standards. The preparation and circulation of school books and vernacular Christian literature has also received much attention.

162. Of the above work the portion carried on in the Civil and Military Station is as follows:—one Tamil Christian congregation of 176 members, two Anglo Vernacular schools for boys with 176 scholars, and the preparation and circulation of school books and vernacular christian literature.

163. WESLEYAN MISSION.—In the Civil and Military Station the Wesleyan Mission has two departments of work, English and Tamil.

164. There are two English Chapels, one adjoining the parade and the other on St. John's Hill, with a minister attached to each. The members of the two congregations number about 700, and the communicants 140. In connection with each chapel there is an English Girls' School, that in the Cantonment teaching up to the middle standard and containing 59 pupils, and that on St. John's Hill containing 21. There is also a free school in Shoolay with 46 children. In the Sunday schools there are 164 scholars.

165. The Tamil work is under the superintendence of a European Missionary assisted by a native minister and evangelists. The Christian congregation numbers about 410, of whom 151 are communicants. Several school room services for Hindus are held every week. At Mutacheri and Shoolay there are Anglo Tamil Boys' schools containing 263 scholars, and in the Broadway, the Gun-Troop, Cavalry lines and Knoxpotta there are Tamil schools with 227 boys. A boarding school containing 43 Christian girls is conducted in the Mission compound. In Narrain Pillay Street Ulsoor and Shoolay, there are four girls' day schools under the care of an English lady and containing 350 pupils. A new building for a girls' school has been opened in Narrain Pillay Street, and the school transferred to it from the Broadway has been raised to a higher standard.

166. The Harvestfield, an English monthly periodical devoted to Missionary topics, is published by the Mission in Bangalore.
